Rear Commodore Steve: Steve discussed: Memorial Day flyer, Opening Day, Des Moines, Longbranch, the Birthday Bash, and the Poker Run (which was moved to Sept). He reminded everyone that the flyer is on the website. Lastly, he gaveudos to Gary & Cindy for the great job with the FOY cruise.

Vice Commodore Robert: Noted that he’s working on the location for the Change of Watch.

Commodore Tracy: The Daffodil event was great! Gary and Cindy had the flu but managed to pull off a beautiful float! The voting showed that we almost got the People’s Choice award. He reiterated Steve’s list of functions and encouraged members to attend.

Past Commodore Dave: Welcome back! He reminded everyone of the golf cruise and asked that folks sign-up. He also thanked everyone who’s been helping to plan the Commodore Ball.

Trustee #1 Susie: She encouraged participation at meetings and asked everyone to fill out the survey about the meeting location.

Trustee #2 Carla: absent

Parliamentarian Pam: nothing to share.

Sunshine Ann: Shared that Angelica went home today.

Publicity Vicki: absent

IOBG Bill: Spring meeting is coming up.

Safety Bob: He has the stickers and is ready to do inspections. He is planning on going to Port Orchard but could do some this Saturday if they were desired sooner. Call to let me know.

Membership Pam: absent

New business: Roberts is collecting photos for the website. Officers for opening day are Steve & Pam, Dave & Ann, and Tracy & Carolyn. The Wild Rose will be the flagship. Tracy also invited all members to a Happy Hour and encouraged members to make jello shots to pass out on zero dock. Lastly, Tracy indicated that there were a couple shirts left for sale and to see him if interested.

Steve then did a presentation on how to successfully navigate through the Locks.

Old Business:

Raffles: Tracy won the $25. No name tag
